

2018

EDUCATOR OF THE YEAR AWARDS

Presented By
James A. and Juliet L. Davis Foundation

The James A. and Juliet L. Davis Foundation will again grant five awards this year for outstanding classroom teachers. Two will be selected from Grades K-6, one from Grades 7 & 8, and two from Grades 9-12. Teachers must be currently serving in the Hutchinson Public School System to receive consideration. Administrators and other non-classroom and non-teaching personnel are not eligible to receive these awards. Past recipients of the awards are ineligible for consideration for the five succeeding school years following selection, but thereafter may be nominated again. Those ineligible for consideration for nomination during the current school year by virtue of their previous selection are:

Jesse Ediger, Alice Schmidt Boyd, Josh Dellenbach, Laura Benschmidt, Larry Ballard, Kristy Farley, Ashleigh Vieyra, Alma Henry, Leanna Gleason, Hilary Stutzman, Abby Thompson, Hannah Schletzbaum, Jessica Self, Kelli Lusk, Joe Godina, Tabetha Gray, Melissa Law, Jenni Winters, Jean Gaeddert, Cassie Sturgeon, Brian Brillhart, Amber Carithers and Clayton Evans

A selection committee designated by the Trustees of the Davis Foundation will review all nominations and will submit a list of finalists to the Davis Foundation Trustees, who will thereafter interview and select the Educators of the Year. Announcement of the winners will be made at the Opening Convocation of the full USD 308 staff held in August. Each winning teacher, in addition to the recognition of his or her skill and dedication, will receive a cash award of $4,000.

Persons desiring to submit a nomination should do so by filling out the form on the reverse side and sending it to the Davis Foundation, c/o Carol Winkley, Trustee, 1201 Stonebridge Drive, Hutchinson, KS 67502, not later than March 5, 2018. Names of persons making nominations will not be divulged to the nominees.

